P. B. BARBINGER. Chalman. past ten days it was a special p'ea-ure of mine to visit the home of Mr. J. H. Shertzer, the gentl-manly and efficient manager of Hayfield Farm, and I received a right royal welcome from him, his excellent wife and the other members of his charming family and was made to feel at home during my stay. It is indeed refreshing to be in the atmosphere of such association,

Mrs. Fannie W. Clarke, of Washington, D. C., with two lady relatives, Misses Blanche and Flora Hooper, are now spending the summer at the Hayfield mansion, which was the former home of Mrs. C., some years ago. Miss Naomi Risdon, whose home is in Washington, spent the past week on a visit to her sister Katie and other relatives near Franconia Station and will return to the city named this week. Her many friends were glad to see her again.

The second quarterly meeting for Lincolnia circuit was held on last Sun-day at B-thel M. E. Church. At 11 a. the presiding elder, Rev. S. A. Ball, delivered an interesting discourse to an attentive congregation after which the holy communion was administered. Preaching services were also held at 3:15 and 8 p. m. at which the pastor, Rev. R. Chew, officiated with pleasure to those who made up his au-dience. The Sabbath school at 2:30 p. m. was also favored with an interesting address by the presiding elder.

Master Thomas Webb Scott, of Nor folk, Va., is at this time on a visit for the summer at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Virginia Scott, at this point. He is a bright manly youth. His sister Mary who has been spending some time in Washington with friends will also make a visit to Mrs. Scott.

Owing to the inclement weather last week the ladies of Bethel M. E. Church could not have their festival as they had expected, which was a great disappointment to many. Last Wednes-day was named and Providence smiled by giving them a very pretty day, and preparations for the same were made accordingly. The festival was held in a grove near the church, where stands and seats had been put in place and the large audience of over 200 persons of both sexes were served with choice cakes, ice cream and lemonade, as well as other edibles, and were waited upon by a number of the fair damsels of the neighborhood. This occasion proved a most enjoyable one to all for tunate to be present, every one seeming to have a good time. Chinese lanterns suspended here and there after night fall gave the whole scene a very pretty appearance. Much credit is due to Mrs. Deevers, Mrs. Shertzer, Misses May and Cora Shertzer, Misses Emma and Kizie Rogers and their friends who assisted to render it a success which it proved to be in a financial sense. The snug sum of $37,65 was realized which is to be applied to the benefit of the church above named.
